

— BSB CIBSE CPD Offering

Understanding the Differences Between Fire Dampers & Smoke Control Dampers, CE Testing of Products, and What Has Changed Since the Introduction of the Building Safety Act

To comply with the new Building Safety Act and Residential Building Standard BS 9991:2024 understanding the use of smoke and fire dampers has become of even higher importance and how do you pick what is right from each manufacture.

— 6 modules

Structured seminar covering competence to Gateway 2

— CIBSE CPD

Approved continuing professional development

— Free to book

Delivered in person or online, at no cost

— CPD Agenda

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Understanding Competence - and Why It Matters
- 3 CE Marking - What You Need to Know
- 4 Classifications & Testing
- 5 Documentation
- 6 Gateway 2 - Information Now Required

— What you'll learn

Challenges of understanding the different products when presented to you

Understand which products are available in the marketplace and what questions you should be asking for specification or looking at like for like options.

Building Safety Act Alignment

Learn how smoke & fire dampers link in with the new Building Safety Act and new building regulations 9991:2024

In-depth Review of Standards

Explore in more depth the standards and which product suits which application.

Who Benefits the Most:

This training is ideal for fire engineers, HVAC designers, and fire safety consultants

Formula of the Event:

Our training comprises a 45-minute interactive seminar followed by a 15-minute Q&A session.

What you will get:

1. Check list of does & don'ts

Assessed to ISO 9001:2015 Cert No. 1464

